

Venice Eco-Fest: Come experience the future NOW with great Eco-Exhibitors, Performances, and FUN!

On June 28 Venice Beach will be transformed!

Festival Location & Description (Festival Hours: 10 am – 7 pm):

Venice Beach at Windward and Ocean Front Walk (north of Venice Blvd). Windward Ave. will be closed off from Pacific to Speedway, and filled with booths. Across Speedway, the booths will continue into the Venice Beach Recreation Area.

- Over 100 exciting Eco-Exhibitors with important planet preservation tips
- Sun-powered Sound Stage - All day music, dance, poetry (see schedule below)
- Kid's Explor-o-rama with exotic animals, and interactive shenanigans
- Graffiti Artists at work using eco-friendly paints on the world famous Venice art wall
- Food Court with delicious vegetarian delights
- E-Salvage Recycling Truck in Ross Parking Lot for LARGE e-waste
Bring your used: Computers & Monitors, Laptops, TVs, Stereos, DVD & VCR Players, Scanners, Fax Machines, all kinds of Electronic Accessories, computer and cell phone batteries, etc.
- E-Salvage Recycle Bin on the Beach for SMALL e-waste
Bring your used: Cell Phones & Accessories, Cell Phone Batteries, Laptop Battery only
- Filtered Water Stations - BYO reusable water bottle!
- Million Trees Campaign Tree Give-away
- Green Outposts for recycling/waste/and compost
- PLUS-- Free Bike Valet on the handball court!

Public Parking:

- On Venice Blvd. and the beach lot at the end of Venice Blvd. (Beach lot fills up early!) $6 before 9 am, $12+ after 9 am. Go north 3 blocks to festival site.
- Westminster Elementary School parking lot, on Main St. between Brooks and Westminster Avenues, for $10. Walk two blocks west to Ocean Front Walk, then head approximately 4 blocks south to the festival site.
- Free parking behind Ross Dress for Less on 1400 Lincoln Blvd. (Venice 90291) at California Ave. Park there and cross at light to the north-west corner of Lincoln and California to catch the Big Blue #2 bus, which runs down California Avenue every 20 minutes, a 7 minute ride to Pacific Ave. and Windward, in front of the festival site. Only 75¢ bus fare per person.
 - Also at the Ross parking lot location will be the station for large electronic waste disposal, i.e. televisions, computers, radios, etc. You may park your car there and dispose of your electronic waste.
 - You could also ride your bicycle from this location, and check it at the FREE Bike Valet.
 - Morning volunteers get free parking at the beach, call 866-220-2370

Sun-Powered Stage Performance Schedule: Hosted by MC, Stephen L. Fiske

10:00 am: Ritual: Blessing of the festival

10:30 am: The California Dance Institute (CDI) Westminster School Dance Troop (Carole Valesky, Director)

11:00 am: Canalagators 11:45 am: Shoeflies 12:30 pm: Stefani Valadez & Band

1:00 pm: Welcoming Ceremony with Councilman Bill Rosendahl (Honorary Chair), Heart of Humanity Award to actor Ed Begley, Jr., plus Earth Anthem Dance by Blankenship Ballet.

2:00 pm: Stephen L. Fiske & Band 2:45 pm: Blankenship Ballet

3:00 pm: Superbroke Brass and Tin and String Marching Ensemble 3:45 pm: Blankenship Ballet

4:00 pm: Alfred Johnson & Friends 4:30 pm: Eco Fashion Show 4:45 pm: Preeta&the PeaceMakers

5:15 pm: The Luminaries 5:45 pm: Blankenship Ballet 6:00 pm: Kathy Leonardo

6:30 pm: Suzy Williams & the Backboners

Poets from Beyond Baroque will also be reading

Enjoy the delicious treats, music, art and dance...

GO GREEN!

This festival is carbon neutral. You can be too: www.CarbonCounter.org

Festival Powered by the Sun and California Solar Electric

Printed by JoJoMonster Graphics on 100% tree-free paper from Topanga Eco Mail